Spooktacular
Challenge
...it's time to "Take Fear By The Reins"

Spooktacular Challenge Details:

1. If you haven't already, click here & Join our Facebook Group called: Horses-U Practical Solutions for Extraordinary Horsemanship

(we will approve you) this page is where we will hold all of the training and challenge. If you have friend's who would like to take part please have them sign up here.

2. Download & Work through the S.P.O.O.K. Worksheet. (right click the link & choose "save as" to save it to your hard drive) We will help you with this on Monday November 9th class. Basically you will be defining a fear (can be yours or it can be your horse's) and making a plan to take steps to overcome it. There is nothing too big or too small. Everything counts. Post at anytime in the Spooktacular Challenge group for support and help. We will work on this in detail in our 2nd class.

Post your fear or "obstacle" you are working through to the group, this will give you extra accountability & tons of support! Your post will be completely private to the group.

We will be having "Spooktacular" Training Classes plenty of access to help, (the schedule is below).

3. At the end of our Spooktacular journey together in the last week of October, when you are ready and have made your final progress, you will make a comment on the top pinned post in the private Spooktacular Challenge facebook page your story (includes pictures and video if possible), please be sure to comment in the correct post so everyone sees it and it does not get lost in the feed. You will have until November 15th at the latest to complete the challenge & post, probably best to try to be done by the 10th so people can have a chance to see & like your post.

4. Read other people's comments and "like" your favorites, (the ones where our fellow members have come the furthest in overcoming obstacles.) Again the post will be completely private to the group participating in the challenge. There will be no negativity tolerated so do not worry about sharing, be open and honest :)

5. The Spooktacular will be judged on participation, completion of your homework assignments and who the judges feel has made the most progress.

6. The deadline is November 1, 2017 12:00 midnight eastern time. We will announce the winner November 6th at our Horses-U Saddle Club Meeting.
