What: "The Extraordinary Horsemanship Challenge" is a guided 13-week horsemanship journey.

With a new lesson every Monday, this program in a nutshell inspires you to practice & perfect your fundamentals of horsemanship, and create confident mindset shifts.

In other words- you will know what to work on each week, in challenges that fit you... and your horse.

With personalized feedback and community support, you'll gain the confidence to unleash your equestrian potential, take action and become the horsewoman you've always wanted to be.

When: This challenge is "Evergreen" meaning it is ongoing. So your personal challenge starts the Monday after you sign up. At the end of 90 days, you will receive a completion form in your email to turn in and report your progress.

Cost: $17 (to be eligible for prizes)

What counts: Any session that is a minimum of 20 minutes counts towards your challenge goal

- ★ Groundwork
- ★ Liberty
- ★ Riding
- ★ Showing
- ★ just "being" with your horse connecting

Any kind of horsemanship activity that includes your horse...it all counts!

Tracking: You will find a printable Challenge Tracker on the challenge home page (see top of page), or use your "Extraordinary Horsemanship Horse Training Journal" or "Equestrian Extraordinary Life Planner" if you have one! But you can use any kind of tracker or app that works for you. And transfer the info from the Challenge Tracker to turn in your results on the completion form you will receive at the end of 90 days/13 weeks

Winning: OF COURSE, the big prizes are improving your horsemanship, creating and deepening your partnership with your horse and working toward your horse goals, not losing ground to the summer heat, and being ready to roll right into the fall riding season!

We'll award weekly prizes by drawing - great swag like t-shirts, ball caps, journals, coaching, etc.

Anyone who achieves 70 rides in the 90-day period will be entered to win the GRAND PRIZE, a gorgeous buckle from Molly's Custom Silver, we will award a buckle once per month (starting 8.1.23 via drawing composed of the challengers who turned in the completion form for that month (buckle will be ordered at that time so it can be customized, allow 4-6 weeks for delivery).
